Headline:
Snow showers in east Friday. Dry, sunny west. Cold everywhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
A largely dry and clear night, some freezing fog and a few icy patches. Scattered snow showers across Northern Isles extending into Aberdeenshire and Angus overnight. A widespread severe or very severe frost.

Thursday:
Mostly dry and very cold with plenty of sunshine. Occasional snow showers will affect parts of eastern Scotland and the Northern Isles. Feeling bitterly cold in the strengthening southeasterly wind.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Isolated light snow showers across northeast on Friday, otherwise dry, cold. During weekend periods snow feeding in from southwest, perhaps turning to rain later in far west. Windy along coasts.
